The EVolution of all-terrain performance

Thought you'd seen everything an EV could do? Think again. This one kicks open a whole new frontier. Introducing the all-new, all-electric Subaru Trailseeker.

Blending advanced electric intelligence with elevated performance, presence and the all-terrain capability Subaru is famous for. This is a Sport Electric Vehicle (SEV) built for those who refuse to stop at the pavement's edge and demand more from every journey. Electrified adventure doesn't quite cover it. This SEV redefines what an EV can do and reshapes the meaning of luxury and adventure in the electric age.

Delivering an exhilarating 280 kW and a 0-100 km/h time of just 4.5 seconds[1], Subaru Trailseeker offers instant, confident acceleration on demand. At its core is a 74.7 kWh CATL battery, delivering a driving range of up to 533km[2], with 150 kW DC fast-charging capability that takes you from 10-80% in just 30 minutes[3].

Paired with Subaru's Symmetrical All-Wheel Drive, X-Mode and 211mm ground clearance[4], whether you're merging confidently onto the highway or powering down a dusty trail.

Designed to support active lifestyles, it delivers performance, intelligent innovation, and enduring high riding capability for life's boldest pursuits.
